

June 2017

Dear Parents,

With the end of the school quickly approaching, we know you are likely planning summer BBQs, vacations, and family rituals. The summer months welcome opportunities for fun, relaxation, and plenty of outdoor play (with the occasional knee scuff, I am sure). While this break from school activities can be exciting, it also causes students to experience a lag in learning upon returning to school in the fall, a lag we want to prevent. In the name of prevention, we invite you and your child to participate in our summer reading program.

Not only are committed to preparing your child for college, we also want to ensure he/she maintains a lifelong love for learning. Simply put, we want your child to read something academically challenging that he/she will authentically enjoy; therefore, we compiled three novel options for each grade level for students to choose from. From graphic novels and science fiction to memoirs and love stories, the options cover a broad spectrum of reading levels, genres, cultures, and structures to make summer reading accessible, engaging, and enriching for your child. Accompanying the reading, students are required to keep a chapter summary log and construct a short essay upon completion; the combination of these two assignment will be collected Friday 9/1/17 and graded as students' first assignment (more details are attached on the assignment page that follows).

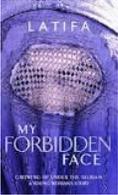

While it is a healthy challenge, reading independently without discussing a novel can quickly disengage a child; therefore, we suggest parents pick-up a copy of their child's selection and read along with them. If you are unable to rent or purchase the novel your child selects, please contact the school at (508) 857-4633 for assistance. Together we can make summer reading an adventure that your child is eager to journey into!

Warmly,

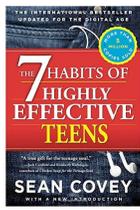

Janice Manning
Principal

My Forbidden Face Latifa 	970	Taliban Oppression Loss of Innocence	September 1996: Taliban soldiers seized power in Kabul. From that moment, Latifa, just 16 years old became a prisoner in her own home. Her school was closed. Her mother was banned from working as a doctor. The simplest and most basic freedoms - walking down the street, looking out a window - were no longer hers. She was now forced to wear a chadri. With painful honesty and clarity, Fatima describes the way she watched her world falling apart, in the name of a fanatical interpretation of a faith that she could not comprehend. Her voice captures a lost innocence, but also echoes her determination to live in freedom and hope.	Available at Brockton Public Library Amazon.com $11.50 Kindle $4.99
Maus: A Survivor's Tale- Volume I Art Spiegelman 	NA	Holocaust Perseverance Survival	Maus: A Survivor's Tale Volume I is a graphic novel depicting the horrors of the Holocaust. The novel depicts the author, Art Spiegelman, as he interviews his father, Vladek, about his experience during the Holocaust. The stories detail Vladek's life as he moves from wealth to poverty, falls in love with his first wife, Anja, raises a son, Richieu, and survives Auschwitz. The author depicts Jews as mice, the Polish as pigs, and the Nazis as cats, which serves as a function of dehumanizing the events of the Holocaust. Vladek's will to live is inspiring and allowed him to live through the horrors of concentration camps: being separated from his wife, nearly starving to death, watching his friends die, hearing about the deaths of family members, and other unimaginable trials.	Available at Brockton Public Library Amazon.com $8.77 Kindle $9.99

This is meant to help you plan your essay; you DO NOT have to hand this in; you should hand in a final draft.

Introduction

Interesting hook:

Brief summary:

1-2 sentence thesis that answers the prompt (this should be like a roadmap that incorporate the three points you will make in your body paragraphs):

Body Paragraph #1

Assertion

First point you made in your thesis statement.

Context

Who said the evidence you are about to introduce? What happened before this evidence came up?

Evidence

Insert evidence that supports you assertion.

Interpretation

Explain the evidence and how it relates to your assertion? Does this deepen the character or plot? Are there any author's craft elements that need to be explained?

Context	Who said the evidence you are about to introduce? What happened before this evidence came up?
Evidence	Insert evidence that supports your assertion.
Interpretation	Explain the evidence and how it relates to your assertion? Does this deepen the character or plot? Are there any author's craft elements that need to be explained?
